

Bursary for Graduate Students

Application for free registration to the Certificate in Knowledge Mobilization

April 2021

The University of Guelph's Certificate in Knowledge Mobilization provides in-depth training into the principles and practices of knowledge mobilization, building capacity to identify and address barriers to knowledge use and research impact.

As part of its effort to support engaged scholarship and impactful research, the Community Engaged Scholarship Institute (CESI) is funding the participation of up to three University of Guelph graduate students or post-docs in all three courses of the 2021-2022 offering of the Certificate in Knowledge Mobilization. For the description of the bursary, eligibility criteria and application requirements, visit www.cesinstitute.ca/kmbbursary.

---

Background information

Name of applicant:

Contact information (phone and email):

What is your current status at the University of Guelph?

Graduate student

Post-doc

Other (specify):

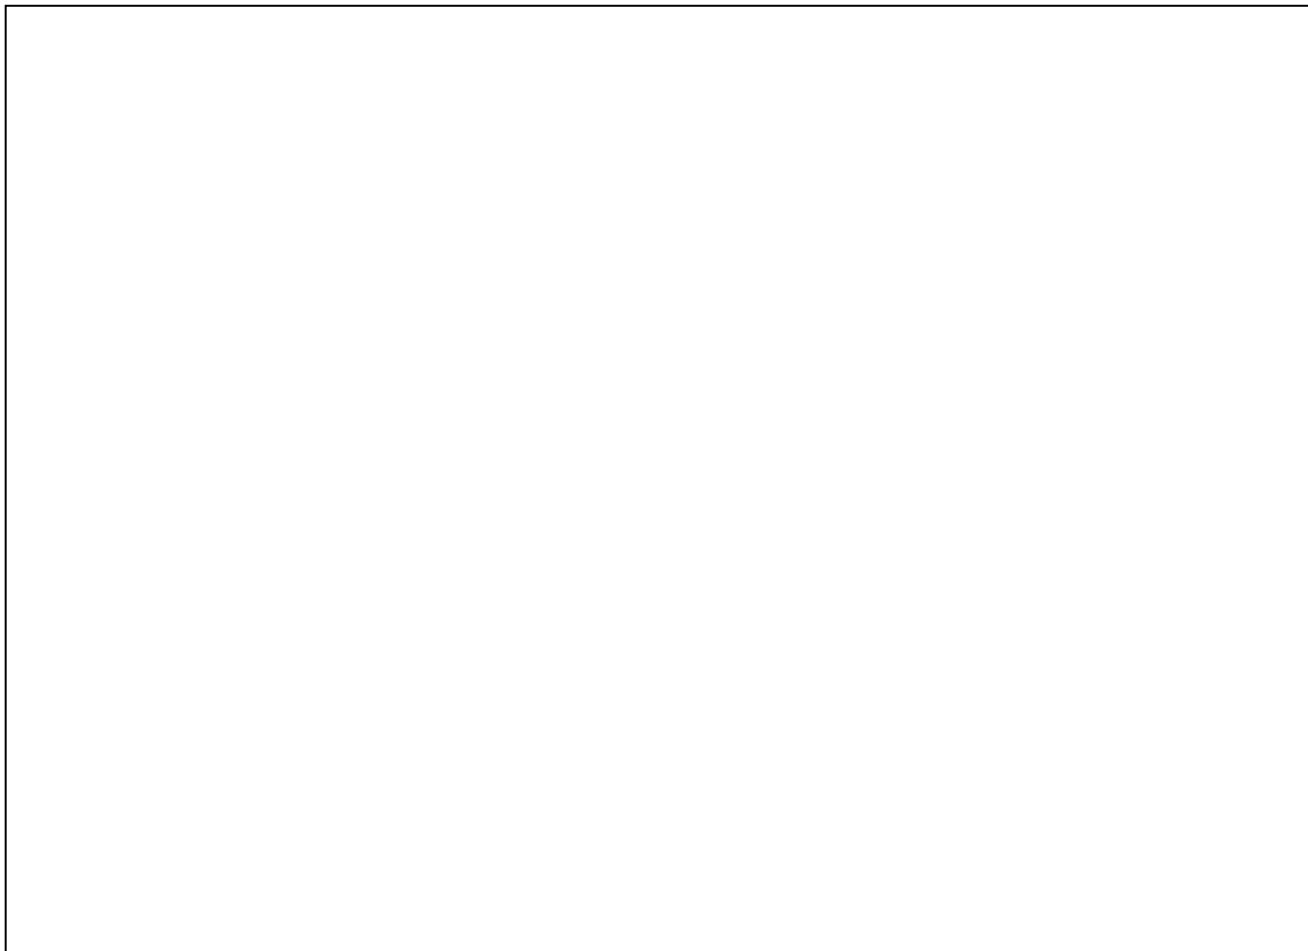

Program and department:

Description of the research project(s) you are involved with (include your own research, as well as other research projects you support – labs, partnered research, as relevant):

Applicant's statement of interest

Use the space provided below to discuss:

- Your motivation for participating the Certificate in Knowledge Mobilization;
- How you plan to apply the acquired knowledge and skills, and the expected impact for your current or future research (including research you support).

Confirmation and signature

Can you dedicate 8-10 hours per week for the duration of each course of the Certificate over 2021-2022?

Yes

No

Applicant's signature:

Submit your application by emailing your completed form to cduvieux@uoguelph.ca by Friday, May 21, 2021.