POSSIBILITIES
IN VIRTUAL
LEARNING & COMMUNITY ENGAGED SCHOLARSHIP

Social Practice and Transformational Change (SOPR) doctoral students Hannah Fowle and Julie Rochefort will present the development and strategies used to conduct community-engaged scholarship research projects during the COVID-19 pandemic. Reflecting on the six SOPR program pillars, future possibilities for moving forward in teaching, learning and community-engaged initiatives during a pandemic will be explored. This webinar is brought to you by the Hub for Teaching and Learning Excellence and the Community Engaged Scholarship Institute.
